Save Thousands Through Our Additional Training Bonus!

A DLS field service engineer will provide an overview and demonstration of organizational level testing tools that can save customers thousands of Euros in identifying "No Fault Found" or "Can Not Duplicate" terminals prior to shipping them for repair! Up to one-third of repairs can be NFFs or CNDs!

Training Benefits

Students will receive Expert-Level instruction from the leading provider of Tactical Data Link Training at the Rockwell Collins/DLS MIDS Repair Facility in Heidelberg, Germany. Training at the Heidelberg facility offers students the unique opportunity to receive training in an environment that permits access to MIDS Terminals, MIDS Support equipment, as well as the DLS team of experts. During training courses, students will be given the opportunity to discuss maintenance, integration, acquisition, and support issues with their instructor and staff.
